

DAILY LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XV.

BOOKS AND MUSIC.

PIANOS AND MELODEONS.

The attention of the public is respectfully directed to an exhibition of the most improved and brilliant and powerful pianos and melodeons—of 4, 5, and 6 octaves, in plain and painted cases, unequalled by any other pianos in the country. The instruments have the advantage of being portable, and are easily adjusted to call and give these instruments a thorough examination.

RECEIVED—NICK-NAX FOR OCTOBER. Price 15c.

Paul Larion, or the Souvenirs of the Antilles—A Story of Ship and Shore, by S. M. BADDELEY, Esq., Price 25c.

— 97 third st., five doors from old Post-office.

The Latest Books.

TWO SISTERS, BY MRS. EMMA D.

Northward.

The Author, Household Waverly edition; Doctor Thorpe, by Anthony Trollope; George Melville, by an American; The Madam, by Mrs. De B.—The Ago, a Satirical Poem by Bailey, author of Feasts of Israel Putnam; Illustrated; d—d; Dr. John Arnold's, d—d; Sermons of Frederick Robertson, third series; Lectures of Lord Montagu; Happy Home, to Kerwin; Woman's thoughts about Woman; The Queen of Africa.

— New Books received as soon as published. 86c.

JNO. W. CLARK'S, Mozart Hall.

The Prince of the House of David, or Three Years in the Holy City.

A BEAUTIFUL VOLUME, TO BE READ WITH PLEASURE AND PROFIT. It is well written, and full of interest, and will be a valuable addition to any library.

It covers a period of three years and six months, embracing all the events of the life of the author, from his birth to his accession. Price $1 25. J. W. CLARK'S, Mozart Hall.

NEW AND CHEAP BOOKSTORE.

G. W. ROBERTSON & CO. HAVE an open shop in the Temple, corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets, Louisville, where all orders in their line will be filled.

In their stock will be embraced a large variety of new and second-hand books, sent by mail to any part of the land at publishers' prices. They call themselves "Champions," their Prudent and Training, "Voyage of Life," "School reader's Bible Manual," "Bible Prayer Book," and "Book of God," prepared by W. E. Evans. The price of each book is $1 25, and the single volume at publisher's prices.

OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—PUPILS preparing School Books can apply there to the calling of Prof. F. F. Fonda, or to the site No. 20 Main street.

TO BE OBSERVED.—IF YOU want anything, go to A. F. BRADLEY & D. BRADLEY.

ALL NEW AND FRESH.—WE ARE now ready for a complete assortment of Goods in the Book and Stationery store.

66 Fourth street, opposite National Hotel.

The Fall Trade!

VIOLINS, 50 CASES GERMAN

Violins, direct importation; 50

case 2nd French Violins, direct importation; 50—50 down-bows, common and rare, assorted.

100 Guitars, ranging from $5 to $100.

In addition to the above, our stock of Flutes, Clarinettes, Bassoon, Drums, Accordions, and Brass

Instruments, very complete.

2. We have the most superb stock of Strings ever brought to this market, which have been selected with special reference to the Fall Trade, and can be had on short notice.

D. P. FAULDS & CO., 59 Main street, Louisville.

FAULDS & HUBER, Masonic Temple.

SQUIRES' CENTRAL AMERICA.—

With original maps and illustrations. An appropriate new, of 722 pages.

Practical guide to the study of Practical Geometry; by C. N. Hawley.

— North; by Anthony Trollope, $1.

— Alcott's History of Richard III—with engravings, $1.

— Alcott's History of Richard III—with engravings,

THE DEMOCRAT.
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
Harney, Hughes & Co.,
EAST SIDE OF THIRD STREET,
BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON.

SUNDAY..... SEPT. 19, 1833.

The City.

Mr. Charles Eden, at his establishment on Third street, west side, between Market and Jefferson, is prepared to serve up oysters in every style, coffee, &c., together with other goods usually kept in restaurants.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS!

There will be a called meeting of the Democratic Association, the First and Second Wards, at Wednesdays Exchange, on Jefferson street, near Clay, Wednesday night next, at half-past seven o'clock. A large attendance is expected.

The Pow-Wow at the Court-house to Nominate a Candidate for Mayor.

This amusing performance came off as per programme yesterday morning, at the Court-house. There was a slim attendance of the faithful, who were supposed to represent the "Emerson pair," all anxious to perform exploits.

To carry out the joke, Mr. James Randolph Ball made Secretary. After which, several facetious gentlemen nominated Messrs. Crawford, Weatherford, Riley, and Gillis, whereupon they proceeded in all seriousness to ballot. On the first—Crawford received 28 votes, Weatherford 20, Riley 15, and Gillis 11. The second stood—Crawford 30, Weatherford 23, Riley 10, and Gillis 13. The third—Crawford 29, Weatherford 27, Riley dropped, Gillis 12. The fourth—Crawford 45, Weatherford 32, and Gillis (unanimously) 1; whereupon Crawford was declared the choice, and the delegates, yielding up their honors, became private citizens like the rest of us, evincing thereby the simplicity of our Republican Government. We suppose they will endeavor to carry out the joke by electing their man; but we hope they will fail.

SADDLERY.—We ask the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our enterprising friend, James Hall, whose store is No. 67 Third street, manufacturer, and wholesale dealer in, saddle and saddlery hardware, saddles, harness, bridles, collars, saddle bags, whips, saddle-blinders, and everything in the saddlery business. He has a very large stock of goods, which he is selling at bazaar prices. His saddles, harness, &c., are manufactured under his immediate supervision, and are made in the best style, and of the best material.

Country merchants, visiting the city to buy goods, will do well to call at this large house, and examine this superior and well-selected stock of goods. Mr. Hall is one of the very severest gentlemen in the city, and dealers and others can rely on his goods being what they are represented to be, both as to durability and finish. Those we again say, who wish to buy goods at fair rates, and of a fair dealer, will do well to keep the above hours in view, when they go to buy their saddlery and hardware goods.

THE SPLINT BROOM.—We ask the attention of families, hotel-keepers, and others to the advertisement in another column headed as above, this broom is a patent, and is one of the best made, and most durable we have ever seen. They are made all sizes, and from the very finest to the coarse broom, well adapted to the house, yard, walks, &c. &c. One of them will wear out a dozen of the common brooms. It can be had only of W. W. Talbot, the agent, on Fourth street between Market and Jefferson. Mr. T. has also every description of wooden and willow wares, children's toys, toilet and fancy articles of every description. Call round and see his patent broom, and examine his large stock of goods.

THEATRE.—Mr. Murdoch had a full and enthusiastic audience last night, to whom his performance gave most unmistakable delight. His De Moor was certainly, taken as a whole, the best personation of that character we have seen. At times, his action attained to the sublime, while his utterance was, throughout, that of the electorion. His version differs from any other in use, and is decidedly a great improvement.

To-morrow evening, he will appear as Young Mirabeau, in the "Inconstant," and as Dick Dashall, in the petite comedy called "My Aunt." We shall look for a full house.

THE FRANKFORT YEOMAN comes to us in a new dress, and considerably enlarged, and otherwise improved. The establishment has been thoroughly re-organized, and the gentle proprietors have already entered upon their duties as public printers.

Our merchants who are desirous of obtaining the trade of interior Kentucky would promote their own interests by conspicuously inserting their business cards in the columns of the Yeoman.

THE weather is delightful for the season; just cool enough; just warm enough, and in fact, just such as one would have, if it made no order."

SALE AT MOUND CITY.—The grand sale of town lots occurs at Mound City next week. A great deal of valuable property will be disposed of to the highest bidder, and a very desirable opportunity offered for safe investments—Mound City is already a thriving place, and certain to be a great emporium.

THE pugilistic encounters on Third street yesterday, gave rise to a deal of conversation. The second difficulty, which occurred among the printers at the Courier office, was a little episode in the general tangle of the craft which has been a theme of conversation among them for several days past.

A cart full of bricks broke down on Sixth street, yesterday, and came very near breaking the driver's leg.

A gentleman, whose name we did not learn, had his pocket picked yesterday of a pocket book containing papers of no value to the thief, and of no particular value to the man.

The streets were thronged with ladies yesterday.

THE Lexington Fair closed yesterday evening.

The day for hearing evidence warrants has been charged by the City Court from Saturday to Tuesday.

THEIR were no arrests of any importance yesterday.

There will be a full bench to-morrow morning in the City Court, Sunday being the day set apart by a great many for getting drunk.

There has been quite a heavy frost in the upper part of the State, and we understand there was one here, night before last.

They are supposed to be about one hundred women in the city of Louisville, who make a habit of getting drunk.

SAKES.—Smokers, who wish to smoke the Havana cigar, should remember friend "Malville," on Fourth street, National Hotel, keep all the choice Havana imported cigars, which he reasonable prices.

SAKES.—Mike Mullin was bailed out of the work-house yesterday.

New Publications.
The Two Sisters; by Mrs. Emma D. E. N.
Southworth: Philadelphia.—T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut street.

We have been favored, by the publishers, with an advance copy of this—the last romance from the gifted pen of Mrs. Southworth. As work of art, it is fully up to the highest achievements of the author, and will add materially to the high reputation, which she has already won in this department of American literature. We have not space to attempt anything like an analysis of the work, and, indeed, Mrs. S. is too widely known, throughout all this country, as a writer of fiction, to render any elaborate notice necessary to attract attention to anything which comes from her pen.

The enterprising publishers have presented the work in a charming form—adorned with a handsome wood engraving.

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.—By Robert Morris, also published by the Messrs. Peterson, is a collection of the miscellaneous writings of Robert Morris, editor of the Philadelphia Pennsylvania Enquirer. We have not yet had time to give it a thorough perusal, but, from a cursory glance at some of the contents of the volume, it bears indications of high literary excellence.

It is handsomely printed, with a well-executed likeness of the author.

(For the Sunday Democrat.)

Ladies' Equestrian Fashions.

Following are among the most elegant of the riding costumes worn at the great "equestrian gathering," held on the 8th September, near Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Lawrence, of New York city—Black cloth skirt and basque—the latter embroidered in black silk; black hat.

This lady received the second prize—a silver service worth $300.

Miss Lydia Shultz, Red Stock, N. Y.—Black cashmere habit, open in front on V-displaying an embroidered chemise; black hat and feathers.

This lady received the second prize—a silver service worth $300.

Mrs. G. M. Smith, New York city—Dark blue cloth coat, with velvet collar, worn open in front; blue cloth skirt; buff cassimere vest, with plain gilt buttons; high-crowned black hat.

This lady was awarded the third prize—a splendid gold and white pearl necklace.

Mrs. C. H. Diefel, N. Y. City—Blue cashmere habit, with a row of plain gilt buttons; the same of the same; black velvet hat and plumes.

Mrs. Ada Rolf, Newark, N. J.—Black silk body and skirt; straw hat, trimmed with white lace, and pendant buttons.

Miss Mount, N. Y. City—Dark-green velvet basque, open in front; blue menino skirt; white basque, open in front; plain gilt buttons; black skirt; black hat and plume.

Mr. Cornell, N. Y. City—Brown cashmere habit and skirt; blue velvet hat, and black plume.

These ladies were saved from the competition by the simplicity of our Republican Government. We suppose they will endeavor to carry out the joke by electing their man; but we hope they will fail.

SADDLERY.—We ask the attention of our readers to the advertisement of our enterprising friend, James Hall, whose store is No. 67 Third street, manufacturer, and wholesale dealer in, saddle and saddlery hardware, saddles, harness, bridles, collars, saddle bags, whips, saddle-blinders, and everything in the saddlery business. He has a very large stock of goods, which he is selling at bazaar prices. His saddles, harness, &c., are manufactured under his immediate supervision, and are made in the best style, and of the best material.

Country merchants, visiting the city to buy goods, will do well to call at this large house, and examine this superior and well-selected stock of goods. Mr. Hall is one of the very severest gentlemen in the city, and dealers and others can rely on his goods being what they are represented to be, both as to durability and finish. Those we again say, who wish to buy goods at fair rates, and of a fair dealer, will do well to keep the above hours in view, when they go to buy their saddlery and hardware goods.

THE SPLINT BROOM.—We ask the attention of families, hotel-keepers, and others to the advertisement in another column headed as above, this broom is a patent, and is one of the best made, and most durable we have ever seen. They are made all sizes, and from the very finest to the coarse broom, well adapted to the house, yard, walks, &c. &c. One of them will wear out a dozen of the common brooms. It can be had only of W. W. Talbot, the agent, on Fourth street between Market and Jefferson. Mr. T. has also every description of wooden and willow wares, children's toys, toilet and fancy articles of every description. Call round and see his patent broom, and examine his large stock of goods.

THEATRE.—Mr. Murdoch had a full and enthusiastic audience last night, to whom his performance gave most unmistakable delight. His De Moor was certainly, taken as a whole, the best personation of that character we have seen. At times, his action attained to the sublime, while his utterance was, throughout, that of the electorion. His version differs from any other in use, and is decidedly a great improvement.

To-morrow evening, he will appear as Young Mirabeau, in the "Inconstant," and as Dick Dashall, in the petite comedy called "My Aunt." We shall look for a full house.

THE FRANKFORT YEOMAN comes to us in a new dress, and considerably enlarged, and otherwise improved. The establishment has been thoroughly re-organized, and the gentle proprietors have already entered upon their duties as public printers.

Our merchants who are desirous of obtaining the trade of interior Kentucky would promote their own interests by conspicuously inserting their business cards in the columns of the Yeoman.

THE weather is delightful for the season; just cool enough; just warm enough, and in fact, just such as one would have, if it made no order."

SALE AT MOUND CITY.—The grand sale of town lots occurs at Mound City next week. A great deal of valuable property will be disposed of to the highest bidder, and a very desirable opportunity offered for safe investments—Mound City is already a thriving place, and certain to be a great emporium.

THEIR were no arrests of any importance yesterday.

There will be a full bench to-morrow morning in the City Court, Sunday being the day set apart by a great many for getting drunk.

There has been quite a heavy frost in the upper part of the State, and we understand there was one here, night before last.

They are supposed to be about one hundred women in the city of Louisville, who make a habit of getting drunk.

SAKES.—Smokers, who wish to smoke the Havana cigar, should remember friend "Malville," on Fourth street, National Hotel, keep all the choice Havana imported cigars, which he reasonable prices.

SAKES.—Mike Mullin was bailed out of the work-house yesterday.

River Intelligence.

The ferryboat Black Louisa was still aground last evening.

Yesterday evening, in crossing from Jeffersonville, one of the ferryboats stuck on the rocks, but succeeded in getting off in about twenty minutes.

The river is falling, but very slow, with scant one foot ten inches water, by the mark, in the canal.

The Superior had not arrived late last evening. We understand, from the clerk of the Hastings, that she laid over a few hours Friday to repair one of her boilers. The Hastings came down after the Superior's freight.

MEMORANDUM.—Steamer Mary Cook left Cairo the 15th inst., at 9 o'clock, A. M. Met Poland at Cash Island; Gov. Powell at Elizabeth; Chatanooga aground at Caseyville; passed Lacross aground at Stevenson; met Harmonia, Interchange, Lake City, Henry Fitz, Georgia, the 16th; R. W. R. at 10 a.m.; Island; John Gadsden at Moulton; at Lewisport; Tempe at Alton; La Grange at Amherst敦; Resolute at Brandenburg; R. M. Patton aground at New Boston.

The St. Louis Republican, of the 17th, says:

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatches have been received in this city from Quincy, Ill., giving information that the steamer W. H. Denny had been burned—boat and cargo entirely lost. The passengers and crew were saved.

STEAMER W. H. DENNY DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Telegraphic dispatch

